

Q. Did she ever claim to identify - a. Willie Stevens, b. Henry Stevens, c. Henry Carpender, d. Mrs. Hall, and if so, when, where and to whom?

A. She could not identify Willie Stevens as the man she saw in the lane. Identified Henry Carpender at Pennsylvania Railroad station in New Brunswick under supervision of Mason and David. As to Mrs. Hall she could not remember her until she learned that Dr. Hall was killed and then recalled having seen Mrs. Hall at a Church rummage sale some three months before. She never identified Henry Stevens and never saw him. The investigators were satisfied with the alibi of Henry Stevens and never created an opportunity for Mrs. G. to identify him

Q. Did she ever say she owned a pistol and if so, what kind?

A. M. does not recall.

Q. Did she say what she was going to go to the person in the rickety wagon, if she overtook the wagon?

A. Going to follow wagon into town and have occupants arrested.

Q. Did she admit to Mason that she had approached Sippel?

A. M. does not recall.

Q. What was her reason for not reporting to the authorities immediately?

A. She gave no reason but did report to Totten on Monday following the shooting.

Q. Did she admit she had revisited the scene of the crime before she went to see the authorities.

A. No. Only her visit about midnight of day of shooting.

Q. Did Mason examine William Easton, Sr., William Easton, Jr. and William Whittaker, as to what she had told them?

A. M. has no recollection.